UCC Social Media Postcards
December, 2015
Catalogue One
Comma, comma, comma, comma, comma, comma, chameleon. When God is still speaking, transformation happens and lives change.
Think about returning to church. Come back for the community, the extravagant welcome, the love. God knows we need it now more than ever.
400 years of institutionalized racism has put African-Americans at a huge disadvantage. The only way to solve it... is to recognize it.
The Bible is like GPS.

A brilliant guide. All-knowing. Occasionally wrong.

Sometimes, we all just need to re-calculate. Fortunately, at the UCC, we believe God is still speaking.
Two women came to King Solomon claiming to be the child’s mother. He congratulated the lesbian couple on their beautiful baby.

The UCC has a more contemporary view of religion. Modern, relevant, for today.
Even a leopard can change its spots.

When God is still speaking, change happens.
In the first Millennium, JC had a few careers. Gave back to the community. Was spiritual. And rebelled against traditional religions. Yep, sounds like a Millennial, alright.
There is no afterlife for planet Earth. This is it. So let’s start acting that way.
The UCC looks at religion a little differently. We spin it around and turn it upside down. Are you ready to look at faith with a fresh perspective?
Here’s A Revelation: God didn’t end in Revelation.

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Just because the Bible ends doesn’t mean that God did, too. We believe that God is still speaking and inspiring us today.
Ignoring climate change and scientific evidence could have catastrophic consequences. Which makes it both unwise and inhumane.
The UCC looks at religion a little differently. We spin it around and turn it upside down. Are you ready to look at faith with a fresh perspective?
Someone has stolen Jesus.

And hijacked his universal message of love and acceptance. Won’t you help us get it back?
God transcends race, age, color and gender. You know she does!
The Bible is an amazing inspiration. But we view it in context of the day it was written. What’s more, we believe that God is still speaking....
White Privilege.
If you can’t see it, you got it.

UNITED CHURCH
OF CHRIST