26 SUMMARY
27

28 In 1985 the Fifteenth General Synod of the United Church of Christ made a landmark decision to 29 become a Just Peace Church and called on congregations, associations, and conferences to 30 become communities of Just Peace. Moving beyond traditional Christian approaches to war and 31 peace, the General Synod affirmed Just Peace as “the vision of shalom, linking peace, and 32 justice” and the “interrelation of friendship, justice, and common security from violence.” Since 33 that time the need for a vigorous Just Peace movement in our world has only intensified. Nations
34 and regions of the world, and non-national entities, have entered into seasons of nearly perpetual 35 warfare, in places like Afghanistan, Iraq, Syria, Colombia, Israel/Palestine, Sudan and The 36 Republic of Congo. In our own country, the rise in gun violence and mass shootings speak to the 37 need for Just Peace, as does the rapid increase in income inequality, poverty, and environmental 38 degradation.

40 With each new conflict on the global scene a call to “do something” arises and military 41 intervention is frequently the first option considered. Domestic conflicts are met with 42 increasingly militarized policing and incarceration. Just Peacemaking expresses our 43 commitment to engage practices to resolve conflict at every level- in ourselves, in our families, 44 in our communities, and in our world- without violence whenever possible; when it is not
45 possible, to then restrain, contain and reduce violence; and finally to work actively to bring it to a 46 swift, sustainable, and just conclusion. The power of the Just Peace movement is that it does not

47 simply respond to violence and sources of conflict like inequality and exclusion, but it works to 48 address these challenges at their roots by changing the structures that give rise to conflict and 49 injustice. It is a highly active response to the ever-changing nature of conflict and injustice most 50 fitting for the Christian Church following Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace.

51

52 BIBLICAL AND THEOLOGICAL RATIONALE

53

54 As the 1985 Pronouncement says:

55

56 “A Just Peace is grounded in God's activity in creation. Creation shows the desire of God 57 to sustain the world and not destroy. The creation anticipates what is to come: the 58 history-long relationship between God and humanity and the coming vision of shalom.”

59 “Just Peace is grounded in covenant relationship. God creates and calls us into 60 covenant, God's gift of friendship: "I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be 61 an everlasting covenant with them; and I will bless them and multiply them, and will set 62 my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore" (Ezekiel 37:26). When God's abiding 63 presence is embraced, human well-being results, or Shalom, which can be translated as 64 Just Peace.”

65

66 “A Just Peace is grounded in the reconciling activity of Jesus Christ. Human sin is the 67 rejection of the covenant of friendship with God and one another and the creation and 68 perpetuation of structures of evil. Through God's own suffering love in the cross, the 69 power of these structures has been broken and the possibility for relationship restored.”

70

71 “A Just Peace is grounded in the presence of the Holy Spirit. God sends the Holy Spirit to 72 continue the struggle to overcome the powers ranged against human bonding. Thus, our 73 hope for a Just Peace does not rest on human efforts alone, but on God's promise that we 74 will 'have life and have it abundantly' (John 10:10).

75

76 “A Just Peace is grounded in the community of reconciliation: the Just Peace Church.
77 Jesus, who is our peace (Ephesians 2:14), performed signs of forgiveness and healing
78 and made manifest that God's reign is for those who are in need. The church is a
79 continuation of that servant manifestation. As a Just Peace Church, we embody a Christ
80 fully engaged in human events. The church is thus a real countervailing power to those 81 forces that divide, that perpetuate human enmity and injustice, and that destroy.”

82

83 “A Just Peace is grounded in hope. Shalom is the vision that pulls all creation toward a 84 time when weapons are swept off the earth and all creatures lie down together without 85 fear; where all have their own fig tree and dwell secure from want. As Christians, we 86 offer this conviction to the world: Peace is possible.”

87

88 MUTUAL ACCOUNTABILITY

89

90 The 1985 Just Peace Pronouncement issued a call for “churches to organize themselves so as to 91 be effective instruments of God's Just Peace.” It made the provocative declaration that it was not 92 only possible, but our direct call as Christians to join the reconciling work of Jesus Christ and

93 end war. The Thirtieth General Synod of the United Church of Christ will re-issue this call for 94 “churches to organize themselves so as to be effective instruments of God’s Just Peace” with a
95 specific call to develop practices, programs, partnerships, and networks of Just Peace at the local,
96 regional, and national levels.

97

98 INSTITUTIONAL CAPACITY

99

100 The Thirtieth General Synod of the United Church of Christ will request that all churches, 101 associations, conferences, and associated bodies of the United Church of Christ consider how to 102 implement this resolution with the support and encouragement of the Covenanted Ministries.

103

104 PROBABILITY OF INFLUENCING SOCIAL CHANGE

105

106 The 1985 Just Peace Pronouncement made clear: “We have barely begun to explore this little 107 known process of reconciliation.” In the thirty intervening years we have seen the United States’
108 investment in military spending exceed the rest of the world’s military spending combined. We 109 have since 9/11 waged the longest war in this country’s history, yet have seen that our battlefield
110 successes rarely translate into a sustainable peace. The toll on our nation’s military families and 111 veterans has been considerable and in the coming years we will welcome back into our 112 congregations veterans who exhibit unprecedented levels of post-traumatic stress and moral 113 injury.

114

115 With the adoption of this resolution, the United Church of Christ will recommit itself to the 116 inward and outward journey of Just Peace and reaffirm the bold and audacious declaration in our 117 Just Peace Pronouncement: “war can and must be eliminated.”

118

119 Committing Ourselves to the Inward Journey of Just Peace

120 We give thanks for the wisdom, expressed in the 1985 Just Peace Pronouncement when it issued 121 the call for an “inward journey of spiritual nurture” and an “inward journey of education.” The 122 Just Peace Pronouncement was clear, as we continue to be clear, that the disciplines of study and 123 prayer are not incidental elements of Just Peace, but foundational, essential elements. The 124 Pronouncement commended the “use of the World Peace Prayer, using the example of the 125 Benedictine Sisters who pray this specific prayer each day at 12 noon:

126 Lead me/us from death to life,

127 from falsehood to truth.

128 Lead me/us from despair to hope,

129 from fear to trust.

130 Lead me/us from hate to love,

131 from war to peace.

132 Let peace fill our hearts,

133 Our world, our universe.”

134 Being sustained for the inward journey of Just Peacemaking requires cultivating spiritual 135 disciplines such as forgiveness and grounding ourselves in hope. As in 1 Peter 3:15 “Always be 136 prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope you have”,
137 we are called to be witnesses to the hope that we have found. Just Peacemaking practices have

138 been revealed, applied, and tested in the last thirty years- often confounding the wisdom of the 139 world with the hope of the Gospel.

140

141 The Just Peace practices call us to:

- 142 1. Support nonviolent direct action
- 143 2. Take independent initiative to reduce threat
- 144 3. Use Cooperative conflict resolution
- 145 4. Acknowledge responsibility for conflict and injustice, and seek repentance and forgiveness
- 146 5. Advanced democracy, human rights, and religious liberty
- 147 6. Foster just and sustainable economic development
- 148 7. Work with emerging cooperative forces in the international system
- 149 8. Strengthen the United Nations and international efforts for cooperation and human rights
- 150 9. Reduce offensive weapons and weapons trade
- 151 10. Encourage grassroots peacemaking groups and voluntary associations

152

153 We have seen in the last thirty years how these and other Just Peace practices were applied in 154 South Africa, where geopolitical pundits were sure there would be a bloody race war to end
155 Apartheid. We've seen the Berlin Wall come down and East and West Germany peacefully
156 reunited. We've witnessed the number of US and Soviet Union nuclear warheads reduce from a
157 high in 1985 of 65,000 to less than a quarter that number today. We watched what many thought 158 was an intractable civil war in Liberia brought to an end by the peaceful demonstration of 159 women who courageously took to the streets. These stories ground our hope in real world 160 experience, contradict and confound the pessimist, and strengthen our resolve to proclaim our 161 faith in God's future of Shalom.

162

163 Committing Ourselves to the Outward Journey of Just Peace

164 In the words of the Pronouncement:

165 "We call all local churches to the outward journey of political witness, enabling all 166 members to join the search for the politics of a Just Peace."

167 And we have seen our congregations; members and church officers become powerful 168 constituents and advocates for peace in places like Sri Lanka, East Timor, Iraq and Afghanistan.
169 We have been a powerful voice for third world debt relief, nuclear arms reduction, the protection
170 of our environment, and the dangers of a growing income inequality.

171

172 "We call all local churches to the outward journey of community witness."

173 And we have seen our members take up vigils to end gun violence in the streets of their
174 communities, stand in solidarity against the militarization of our police forces, and raise warning
175 about this country's incarceration crisis.

176

177 "We call for local churches to make their convictions known in their communities 178 through public forums, media, and presence in the public arena."

179 And we have seen our churches lead difficult conversations around the need to defend hard 180 fought rights of minorities, women, and the LGBT community.

181

182 One of the boldest statements in the Just Peace Pronouncement is a simple sentence: "War can 183 and must be eliminated." The world doubts, believing instead that violence is an inherent part of 184 human nature. But our hope is rooted in deeper soil; that being created in the image of God, we 185 can transcend violence as the way to resolve conflict. Forgetting this, losing the imagination to 186 picture peace as a real possibility, is a temptation with tragic consequences. Believing that with 187 God all things are possible; believing that God promises peace; believing that it is peace that 188 Jesus leaves with us; these are foundational beliefs for the United Church of Christ and are 189 central to the inward and outward journey of being a Just Peace Church.

190

191 TEXT OF MOTION

192

193 WHEREAS, scripture calls us to seek God’s shalom and participate in the reconciling mission of 194 Jesus, the Prince of Peace.

195

196 WHEREAS, at its Fifteenth General Synod in Ames, Iowa the General Synod adopted the 197 pronouncement “Affirming the United Church of Christ as a Just Peace Church,” and called on 198 its local churches, conferences and national bodies to “organize their common life so as to make 199 a difference in the achieving of a Just Peace and the ending of the institution of war.”

200

201 WHEREAS, in the thirty years since the adoption of the Just Peace pronouncement, we have 202 seen protracted violent conflicts, intractable systemic injustices, and crippling cultural prejudices
203 resolved using just peacemaking practices.

204

205 WHEREAS, in the thirty years since the adoption of the Just Peace pronouncement, many United 206 Church of Christ Conferences, Seminaries, Institutions, and congregations have declared
207 themselves Just Peace communities and have adopted policies and strategies to live out this call.

208

209 WHEREAS, in the year 2001, the United Church of Christ along with other global faith
210 communities affirmed and participated actively in the World Council of Churches “Decade to 211 Overcome Violence: Churches Seeking Reconciliation and Peace” program, and joined with
212 other communions in marking the end of the decade in 2011 at the International Ecumenical 213 Peace Convocation in Kingston, Jamaica.

214

215 WHEREAS, the World Council of Churches commended for study and action an “Ecumenical 216 Call to Just Peace,” and re-affirmed at its General Assembly in Busan in 2013 a “Statement on 217 the Way of Just Peace,” highlighting a growing ecumenical consensus toward Just Peacemaking, 218 calling on member churches to join an “Ecumenical Pilgrimage of Justice and Peace,” by seeking 219 peace in four distinct contexts:

220

For Just Peace in the Community- so that all may live free from fear,

221

For Just Peace with the Earth- so that life is sustained,

222

For Just Peace in the Marketplace- so that all may live in dignity,

223

For Just Peace Among the Nations- so that human lives are protected

224

225 THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Thirtieth General Synod mark the 30th Anniversary
226 of the Just Peace Pronouncement by reinvigorating the Just Peace movement in the United 227 Church of Christ and beyond. In common cause with all who seek peace with justice, a renewed
228 Just Peace movement will most surely include ecumenical relations with Christian Churches

229 throughout the world, interfaith partnerships in the United States and beyond, and strong new 230 alliances wherever they may be made.

231
232 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that each congregation of the United Church of Christ be 233 invited to become a Just Peace congregation, if they have not already done so.

234
235 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Thirtieth General Synod invites a litany of covenant
236 making to be celebrated throughout the church and spread liberally across the minutes,
237 publications and communication media of the United Church of Christ. Let this litany give God
238 Praise for the first thirty years of witness in the United Church of Christ as a Just Peace church 239 and covenant all who pray it into a common bond of love and service.

240
241 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Thirtieth General Synod invites congregations of the 242 United Church of Christ to mark the Sunday preceding September 21 (which the United Nation 243 recognizes as the “International Day of Prayer for Peace”) as Just Peace Sunday.

244
245 AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Thirtieth General Synod invites all settings of the 246 church who have committed themselves to Just Peace to create local, regional, and national 247 partnerships and networks with the encouragement and support of the Covenanted Ministries of 248 the United Church of Christ; to raise awareness of conflictual justice issues, share concerns, 249 stories, and experience of Just Peace practices at work, and build constituencies around Just 250 Peacemaking.

251
252 FUNDING

253
254 The funding for the implementation of the Resolution will be made in accordance with the 255 overall mandates of the affected agencies and the funds available.

256
257 IMPLEMENTATION

258
259 The Officers of the Church, in consultation with appropriate ministries or other entities within 260 the United Church of Christ, will determine the implementing body.
