ABOUT THE THREE-WAY COVENANT for Leave of Absence Standing

Leave of Absence is a ministerial standing for Ordained Ministers experiencing a prolonged life season when they are neither seeking nor engaged in professional ministry. Such a season might include family leave to care for a new child or an aging parent, study leave to begin an academic program, vocational discernment when a person reassesses their professional path, sick leave following a serious accident of health crisis, or other reasons. During such a season, Leave of Absence modifies the expectations for the ecclesial relationship between the Ordained Minister and their Association, in order to make room for life changes and/or vocational discernment.

An Ordained Minister requests Leave of Absence in writing to the Committee on Ministry where they hold ministerial standing. In conversation with the Committee on Ministry, expectations for the duration of Leave of Absence are outlined in a covenant that includes the Ordained Minister's responsibility for--or reprieve from--requirements for maintaining standing, the ongoing relationship with Local Church of membership, the Ordained Minister's authorization (or not) to perform acts of ministry, and the agreed-upon method of renewing Leave of Absence annually (up to five years) and the process for when the Leave of Absence expires.

The United Church of Christ advises that when an Authorized Minister has chosen to maintain Leave of Absence Standing a covenantal relationship be established among the Authorized Minister, the Local Church, and the United Church of Christ as represented by an Association or Conference. This relationship is known as a three-way covenant, with each party accountable to and for the others. The purpose of this covenant is three-fold:

1. to strengthen, support and sustain the ministries of all the partners that share in this covenant;
2. to encourage mutual participation and accountability of and for the life of each by the others;
3. to observe, nurture, celebrate, and call forth the ministry of the Ordained Minister with Leave of Absence Standing.
