WHEREAS, the Union of Armenian Evangelical Churches in the Near East has shared with our church a history and a mission since the founding of the Armenian Evangelical Church 150 years ago;

WHEREAS, that history has included the establishment and nurture of churches, the building of seminaries and hospitals and the fostering of an ecumenical spirit in the part of the world where the church first experienced division;

WHEREAS, the Armenian Evangelical church has been a faithful part of the Armenian nation, experiencing both the tragedy of genocide and the miracle of rebirth and resurrection of the Armenian nation, including the establishment of the Republic of Armenia;

WHEREAS, the Union of Armenian Evangelical Churches in the Near East maintained a faithful presence and witness in Lebanon during the long Civil War there, consistently refusing to be drawn into sectarian conflict;

WHEREAS, the Union of Armenian Evangelical Churches in the Near East has made significant contributions elsewhere in the Middle East, including Syria, Egypt, Iraq, Turkey and Iran; and has participated significantly in the challenge of nation-building in the new Armenian Republic;

WHEREAS, the United Church Board for World Ministries has been in partnership in mission with the Armenian Missionary Association of America, which in turn has its roots in the Middle East and in the Union; and
